Safety is always a top priority, and that's why this Custom Lanyard product comes equipped with a Safety Breakaway feature. This ensures that the lanyard will break away in case it gets caught on anything, preventing accidents and keeping you safe. Additionally, the Plastic Buckle provides an extra layer of security, keeping your mobile phone or other items securely attached to the lanyard.

The Custom Lanyard product is available in a 1/2 size, making it the perfect fit for most mobile phones and other small items. Whether you're out running errands or attending a concert or sporting event, this lanyard will keep your mobile phone or other items close at hand and easily accessible.

If you're looking for a personalized touch, this Custom Lanyard product also comes with lanyard print options. You can add your own design or logo to make it truly unique and reflective of your personal style or brand. And with a sample time of just 3-5 days, you won't have to wait long to see your customized lanyard in action.

In conclusion, the Custom Lanyard product is a stylish, functional, and safe accessory that is perfect for anyone looking for a mobile phone lanyard or a way to keep small items close at hand. With its durable polyester material, Safety Breakaway feature, Plastic Buckle, Metal J-Hook attachment, and customizable lanyard print options, this product is the perfect way to stay organized and stand out from the crowd.

Applications:

One of the most popular uses for these lanyards is at events and conferences. Attendees can wear neck lanyards with their name badge or event pass attached, making it easy for staff to identify them and ensure that they have access to the right areas. The Custom Lanyards from YISON are particularly well-suited for this purpose because they can be customized with your event's branding using lanyard sublimation. This means that you can create a cohesive and professional look that will help to reinforce your brand identity.

Another scenario where these lanyards are useful is in the workplace. If your employees need to carry identification or security passes with them at all times, a custom dye sublimation lanyard can help to keep these items easily accessible. With the metal J-hook attachment, the lanyard can be clipped to a belt or pocket for easy access throughout the day.

If you're looking to promote your brand, YISON's Custom Lanyard With Logo is a great option. By adding your company's logo to the lanyard, you can create a walking advertisement that will be seen by potential customers wherever it's worn. Whether you're handing them out at trade shows or using them as part of a promotional campaign, these lanyards are a cost-effective way to get your brand noticed.

Regardless of how you plan to use them, YISON's Custom Lanyards are made from high-quality polyester material that is both durable and comfortable to wear. They can be shipped by sea, air, or express to meet your needs, and sample time is typically just 3-5 days. With so many options for customization and use, these lanyards are a versatile and valuable addition to any organization's toolkit.

Customization :

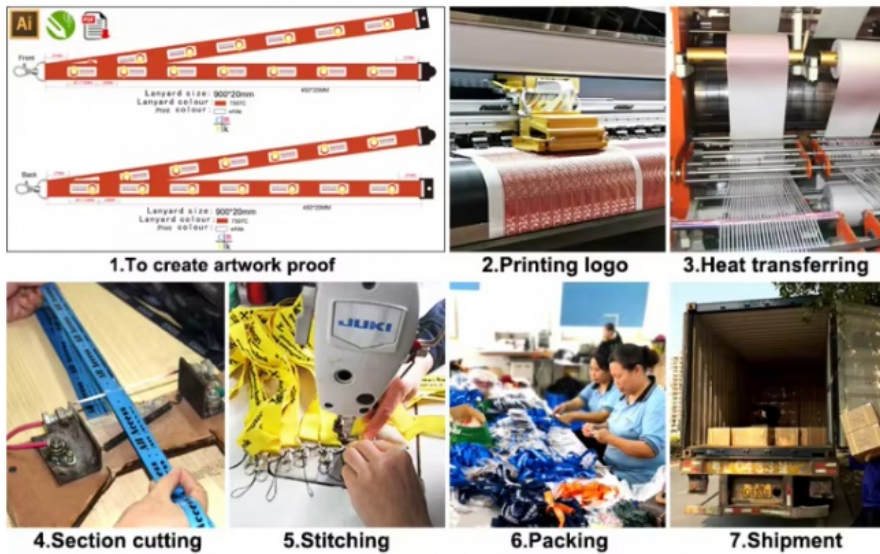

YISON offers customization services for its Custom Lanyards, which are perfect as promotional lanyards or for everyday use. These lanyards are made from high-quality polyester and can be customized according to your needs. You can choose the color of the lanyard, as well as the type of attachment, which is a metal J-Hook.

Our Custom Lanyards are produced in China and can be shipped to your location by sea, air, or express. We also provide logo customization services, so you can personalize your lanyards with your company logo or any design of your choice. The lanyards can be printed using the sublimation technique for a vibrant and long-lasting finish.
