One of the best things about our custom PU floating key chains is their versatility. They make great promotional gifts for businesses, souvenirs for events, or even just decorations for personal use. Plus, with the ability to customize the shape and size of your keychain, you can truly make it your own.

Plastic PU foam Keychain

Plastic PU foam floating keychains are lightweight and come in a wide range of colors and oval shapes. They are often more affordable than metal keychains, making them a popular choice for promotional or customized keychains.

Application :

For businesses, Custom key chains are a great way to promote brand awareness. They can be customized with the company logo and given away as promotional gifts at trade shows, conferences, or other events. They can also be used as souvenirs for visitors to the office or to commemorate a special occasion such as an anniversary or product launch.

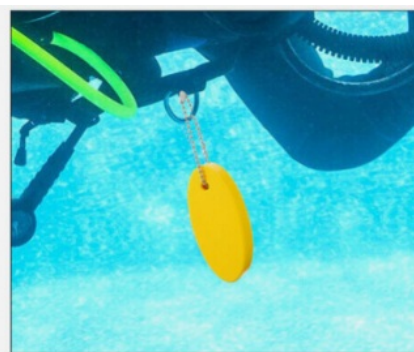

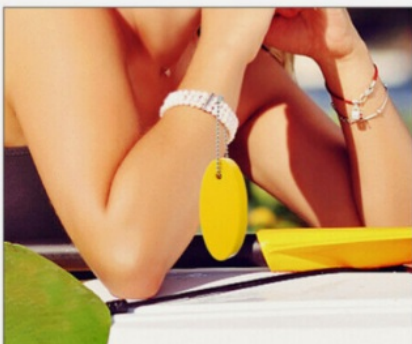

Custom key rings are also a great way to show team spirit. They can be customized with team logos or names and given to players, coaches, or fans. They can also be used as fundraising items for sports teams or other organizations.

Another popular use for Custom PU foam key chains is as wedding favors. They can be customized with the couple's names and wedding date and given to guests as a way to commemorate the special day. They can also be used as decorations for the wedding reception.

Custom PU floating key chains also make great gifts for family and friends. They can be customized with personal messages or photos and given as birthday or holiday gifts. They can also be used as a way to commemorate a special event such as a graduation or milestone birthday.
